Guidance Notes for Sellers

SALE SET UP: Friday 8th May 10am-1pm

PUBLIC SALE: Saturday 9th May 9.00am –1.00pm

SALE CLEAR UP: Saturday 9th May 1.00pm -2.00pm or by Arrangement.

Sellers must register for a seller's pack which will include labels, safety pins and a seller's form at a cost of £3. Please email admin@chedington.co.uk to register with address for pack (and offers of help on the day).

Sellers will be issued with a personal code which must be used on all items. Items will be removed from sale if considered unsuitable by the organisers. Please no shoes, underwear or swimwear.

Items must be clean and presented ready for sale. Clothes must be on a hanger. We cannot guarantee that hangers will be returned to the correct seller after the sale. Furniture items clean and not damaged.

You do not have to attend on the sale day but we would appreciate as much help as possible.

Disclaimer

We do not accept responsibility for any items lost, stolen or damaged. Items are not insured against theft.

Sale Clear-up: Sellers must collect unsold items at the sale clear up day or by arrangement.

Payment for Items Sold: 80% of the marked sale price for all of your items sold will come to you and 20% will go to Weldmar. We would aim to settle by cash/BACS within a week of the sale and only after unsold items have been collected.

Donations

You may prefer simply to donate your items. If you wish to donate please use the sellers code DON.

Labelling

USE ONLY LABELS SUPPLIED BY US and not sticky labels.

Please secure labels firmly to items or we cannot allocate sale proceeds. Good information on the label helps with selling items and identifying sold items on the sale sheets.

Labels should contain the following information:

Sellers reference: A unique code for you. Eg: SMG01

Item description

Price: Up to seller, but be realistic!

Size/Age range if selling clothing

Promotion

Tell your friends about the sale and put up flyers.

Start preparing your items for sale now – don't rush to do it at the last minute.

Arrive in good time on the sale set up day to hang/display your items correctly!
